

First Grade – Review worksheet #06

Name: _____

1. Look at what Archi is saying and then complete the sentences below.

RELATIVE PRONOUNS

We use where to give more information about what happened in a place.

We use who to give more information about a person

We use which to give more information about a thing

Example: My cousin Rudolph, who is from Germany, is a Real Madrid fan.

- My brother, _____ is ten, wants to paint his bedroom black.
- Michael's house, _____ we went yesterday, has a big garden.
- Trisha, _____ loves music, has lots of posters of pop stars in her bedroom.
- I've got a picture of a horse, _____ my grandmother painted.
- I put your card on my shelf, _____ I put all the special things.
- My parents' room, _____ is on the second floor, is really big.

2. Find these things in the picture. Write letters.

butter ___	carrot ___	cereal ___	cheese ___
coffee ___	eggs ___	grapes ___	jam ___
lemon ___	mango ___	milk ___	onions ___
oil ___	pasta ___	pineapple ___	potatoes ___
rice ___	steak ___	sugar ___	tea ___

3. Now look at what Paco is saying and complete the table below with the words from exercise 2.

Countable nouns are things you can count (they can be divided in units) eg. Chair.

Uncountable nouns are things you can't count (they can't be divided in units) eg. Water (there isn't a unit of water)

Countable nouns	Uncountable nouns