

Sixth Grade – Review worksheet #06

Name: _____

1. Match the words in the box with the description.

comedian	director	make-up artist	news reader
weather forecaster

- a. This person tells you if it will rain, snow or be sunny. _____
- b. This person’s job is to make people laugh. _____
- c. This person tells you about the events in the world. _____
- d. This person uses cosmetics on your face. _____
- e. This person is responsible for telling actors what to do. _____

2. Write a short definition for the following electrical appliances. Don’t use a translator or online dictionary and just mention what you use it for. Follow the example.

Eg. Remote control -> you use this to change channels on the TV.

- a. Cooker -> _____
- b. Dishwasher -> _____
- c. Electric razor -> _____
- d. Fridge -> _____
- e. Microwave -> _____

3. Complete with a or some.

- a. I need _____ money to go to the cinema.
- b. I’m watching _____ sitcom at the moment.
- c. I can’t play football right now – I’ve got _____ homework to do.
- d. There’s _____ programme on TV at 8 p.m. about Ancient Egypt.
- e. I’m looking for _____ information about Paris.

f. _____ people prefer documentaries to soap operas, but not many!

4. Complete with the words in the box. There’s an extra word you don’t need.

any	lot of (x2)	many	much	none	some
-----	-------------	------	------	------	------

London is a great place to visit! There are _____ interesting places to see. It’s easy to find your way around and there are a _____ good guidebooks with maps – they’re everywhere! There aren’t _____ maps on the street though. There are _____ Spanish restaurants, but not many, and there are a _____ great parks to play sport in! The only problem

5. Write a short text about the TV programmes you and your family like and dislike. Write about 80 words.
